Charles-Daniélou Museum

Created in 1934, the museum bears the name of its founder, once mayor of Locronan and several times a minister.

An essential step along the Painters Trail in the Cornouaille area of Brittany, the museum houses a collection of paintings from that region: Emile Simon, Désiré Lucas, Kamesuke Hiraga, Yvonne Jean Haffen...

The collection is a powerful testament to the intensity of the art scene in Brittany in the early 20th century. Among the most remarkable artworks: an imposing tableau today listed as a historical monument from the painter Odette Pauvert, the first woman to win the Rome Prize back in 1925, or the Anne de Bretagne sculpture by Jean Fréour whose «big sister» stands at the entrance of the Ducs de Bretagne château in Nantes, or indeed Henri Barnoin's depiction of the village of Tréboül.

Open Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays from 9.00 a.m. to 12.00 p.m. and 2.00 p.m. to 5.00 p.m., and from 9.00 a.m. to 12.00 p.m. on Wednesdays and Saturdays Closed on Sundays and national holidays.

Entrance fee: €5 (No credit card)- Free for under 12s
